SUPERINTENDENT B. HUGHES BARN IN DANGER.

Fire Discovered Therein by a Passerby-Quick Response by Firemen Prevented Destruction-Little Damage Results-Overheated Stove the Cause-Funeral of F. Myers-Other Funerals-Thimble Club Entertained - Concert at Welsh C. M. Church-Allis Mission Services.

An alarm was sounded at 9.35 o'clock last night from box 29, corner of Washburn street and Sumner avenue. A passerby noticed that flames were issuing from the barn located on the rear of the residence of General Mine Superintendent B. Hughes, corner of Hyde Park avenue and Washburn street. Mr. Hughes was notified, and he quickly made his way to the barn and removed the horse and cow from the building. The Columbia Chemical and Franklin Engine companies responded and subdued the flames before much damage was done.

The fire was caused by an overheated stove. Chris, Evans, coachman for Mr. Hughes, occupies apartments in the building, and evidently neglected to dampen the fire before leaving early in the evening. There was no person in the barn when the flames were discovered. The damage was slight. A large crowd was attracted to the scene, many persons having an idea that pub-He school No. 14, which is situated close by, was on fire.

ATTRACTIVE WOMEN.

Fullness of Health Makes Sweet Dispositions and Happy Homes.

[EKTRACTS FROM MRS. FINKHAM'S NOTE BOOK.]

Woman's greatest gift is the power to inspire admiration, respect and love There is a beauty in health which is more attractive to men than mere regularity of feature.

its use. This truly wonderful remedy is the safeguard of women's bealth. Mrs. Manel Smith, 345 Central Ave., Jersey City Heights,

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:-I can hardly find words with which to thank you for what your wonderful remedy has done for me. Without it I would by this time have been dead or worse, insane; for when I started to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was in a terrible state. I think it would be impossible for me to tell all I suffered. Every part of my body pain in my back and head was terrible. I was nervous, had hysteries and fainting spells. My case was one that was given up by two of the best doctors in Brooklyn. I had given up myself; as I had tried so many things, I believed nothing would ever do me any good. But, thanks to your medicine, I am now well and strong: in fact, another person entirely." If you are puzzled about yourself, write freely and fully to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., and secure the advice which she offers free of charge to all women. This is the advice that has brought sunshine into many homes which nervousness and irritability had nearly wrecked.
